Re: Pechner-James, et al., v. City of Revere, et al.

Dear Attorney Dilday:

Receipt of your fax dated May 18, 2006, forwarding the one page letter from Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Care Center concerning Plaintiff Sonia Fernandez is hereby acknowledged. I would call to your attention the fact that the letter in question merely states that Plaintiff Fernandez was "evaluated . . . for an acute medical problem." I note that the letter does NOT say that she was "treated" for anything, NOR does the letter indicate what precisely the acute medical problem was which prevented her from attending her previously scheduled deposition. In light of these glaring deficiencies, I must insist upon Plaintiff Fernandez's production of the actual medical records from this "evaluation." Furthermore, in light of the pending Status Conference on Monday, May 22, 2006, I am further insisting that these records be produced at or before said conference.

Sincerely,

Walter H. Porr, Jr.
Assistant City Solicitor
